

USER GUIDE FULLSTACK WEB TEST – EMBREO

This is the display when the website is first opened, we can see that there are options to log in as Company HR or Vendor.

Click on your role, and enter your username and password to log in. Then, click submit.

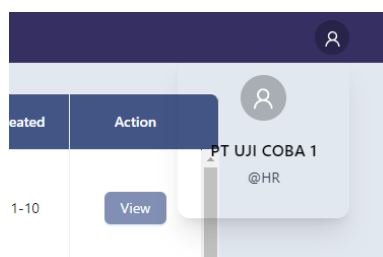

First, we will log in as Company HR. The username and password details will be attached at the end.

The screenshot shows a dashboard with a header 'HOME' and a user profile icon. Below the header is a table of events. The table has columns: Event Name, Vendor Name, Proposed Date, Status, Date Created, and Action. There are five rows of data. The first three rows have a status of 'REJECT', the fourth has 'APPROVE', and the fifth has 'PENDING'. Each row has a 'View' button in the Action column.

Event Name	Vendor Name	Proposed Date	Status	Date Created	Action

This is the display when you log in as Company HR, the page is divided into navigation and a list table for the registered events.

To view user information, you can hover the mouse over the avatar in the left corner.

To log out of the account, you can select the logout button. This button will appear when the pointer is directed to the user info.

In the bottom right corner of the table, there is page information. You can choose to view data on a specific page.

 A screenshot of a 'Company' form titled 'PT UJI COBA 1'. The form includes fields for Event Name, Date Option 1, Date Option 2, Date Option 3, Postcode, Address, and Vendor Name. A 'Submit' button is at the bottom.

As a Company HR, you can add an event you want to create by clicking the "Add Event" button located next to the table.

If you have filled in all the data, click submit. The pop-up window will automatically disappear. You can view the event you added on the final page.

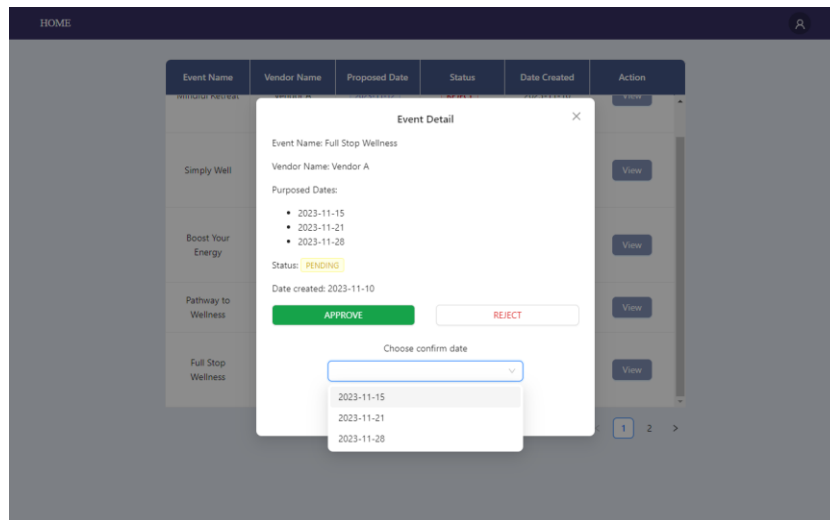

You can also view detailed information about the event by clicking the "View" button located to the left of the data.

The above display is what will appear initially if you log in as a vendor. It's important to note that vendors cannot create events, so there is no "Add Event" button in the vendor's view.

Here is the detailed view of the event when you log in as a vendor. If the status is still pending, the displayed view will look like this.

You can choose to either approve or reject the event submitted by the Company HR. If you select approve, you can choose the confirmed event date. If you choose to reject, you can provide the reason in the input reason column.

Here is information about the website application that I have created:

You can access the website online by visiting the following link:

<https://embreo.vercel.app>

You can also access the code for the website by visiting the following link:

<https://github.com/vtjhyn/embreo>

To try it out, here are the user credentials I have created for testing the website application:

For logging in with the Company HR role, you can use the following data:

Username: uji1

Password: 123123

or

Username: uji2

Password: 123123

For logging in with the vendor role, you can use the following data:

Username: venA

Password: 123123

or

Username: venB

Password: 123123

Enjoy trying it out!
